

Visitor Policy

Last updated February 14, 2022

- FREE guided tours of the preserve are available to all first time visitors.
- Visitors are welcome when the entrance gates are open.
- All visitors must check in:
 - First time visitors must meet with a Whispering Hills staff member for orientation, to review and receive maps of trails, and to register for entry.
 - Before entering the grounds, all registered visitors must sign in at the kiosk outside the office, or by calling the office phone.
 - Before leaving the grounds, all visitors must sign out.
 - For safety purposes, we must know who is on the property at all times.
- Vehicles
 - Cars and trucks are not permitted within the grounds.
 - Electric carts are available at the office. Only adults will be permitted to operate a cart. A member of our staff will conduct an initial test drive. Consent to a hold harmless agreement will be required for anyone using a cart.
 - Carts shall not be driven in excess of 10 miles per hour and must remain on the roads and trails at all times. Carts are not allowed on walking paths.
- Upon entering the preserve, all activities, including funeral processions, shall be subject to the direction of a duly authorized representative.
- Any person entering Whispering Hills other than when the entrance gates are open and without prior authorization from preserve staff, will be considered a trespasser.

Please Note: Whispering Hills is maintained as a natural area with native wildlife, trees, shrubs, wildflowers, and grasses being encouraged to flourish. Along with these naturally occurring elements, there will be typical features of a Georgia forest located in the lower Piedmont region of the state. Boulders, holes, fences, gates, insects, wildlife, ticks, bugs, reptiles, streams, and other potential hazards will be present. Whispering Hills, LLC will not be responsible for any injuries sustained due to contact or encounter with these elements while on the preserve. Whispering Hills LLC is not responsible for loss, theft, or damage to any personal property.